

UBC Division of Palliative Care
presents:
End-of-Life Care In the Age of the Baby Boomers

a place of mind

Topics

Communication
Dying Homeless

Living with Hematological Disease

Behavioural Problems in Dementia

Responding to Requests for Physician-Assisted Dying

7th December 2015, 8.30am-12.30p

Eye Care Centre Auditorium, 2550 Willow St, Vancouver

Provincial videoconference sites available

Contact: ksinman@mail.ubc.ca

Supported by the

Schedule of Events

- 8.30-8.35 Welcome and Introduction
Pippa Hawley
- 8.35 – 9.35 Responding to requests for hastened death
Douglas McGregor & Heidi Oetter
- 9.35-10.05 Living and dying with Hematological Disease
Judith Rodrigo & Wendy Yeomans

10.05–10.15 Break

- 10.15–10.45 An approach to dementia-related behaviours at the end of life
Elisabeth Drance
- 10.45-11.15 Dying Homeless
Susan Burgess & Barb Eddy
- 11.15–12:00 Communication skills in discussing hastened death
Doris Barwich
- 12:00 – 12.30 Assessing and managing conflict when the goals of care of the patient and family are substantively different from those of the healthcare team
Afzal Mangalji
- 12:35 Evaluations and Close